Wisdom, Sophia & the Holy Spirit

...the spirit of fire and of truth

In times of Covid-19 and physical distancing restrictions, some Conference events might not be open for physical attendance, although in some States it may be possible to gather together to watch the livestream of the talks, and have a workshop around the Conference theme. However, to make participation possible for everyone no matter their circumstance, all events will be live streamed and online participation will be possible. Keep an eye out for what the local centers are offering in addition to the streamed talks.

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION AND FEES:

Conference attendance is by donation, for registration email:
