

Youth Adventure Camp

October 22-November 1, 2020

Sponsored by the Seminary of
The Christian Community

Canoeing and White-Water Rafting on the French Broad River South Carolina and Tennessee

Register Here

Registration Deadline October 1st
Questions?

Contact Rev Ann Burfeind annburfeind18@gmail.com

Youth Adventure Camp is a chance to be together on the river, sing camp songs, hear stories and have conversations around the fire. Together a community can be created to meet the needs of those around you, feel gratitude for the beauty of the earth and to be with friends new and old. Each participant will need to be ready to contribute to the chores of life on the river and behave in a way which will keep yourself and others safe.

Leaders:

Colleen Foglia - Eurythmist

Tobias Foglia – Kindergarten Teacher

Lukas Chin – College Graduate – currently walking the Appalachian Trail

Ella Imes - Wilderness Therapy Guide

Katie Krause – Wilderness EMT – Certified Lifeguard

Bride McWilliam - Eurythmist

Francis Westlake - Glenora Farm/Camphill British Columbia

Rev. Ann Burfeind – supporting from a distance

Cost $1,500

Payment will be required at registration. Participation is not payment dependent. If you need financial assistance, please register and indicate how much your family can contribute. Payment by PayPal. Contact Ann Burfeind for information on financial assistance.

Ages

The Adventure Camp will be open to young people ages 13 and older.

Transportation

There will be transportation from Spring Valley to South Carolina and return available if needed.