

2023 MLK Weekend Youth Conference

For 9th - 12th Graders

January 13 - 16, Washington DC

Living In The World House: Chaos and Community

For many, the month of January can be cold, amid school, and far from summer. This conference serves as a break from all those things, (well maybe not the cold.) Come be with one another!

Join us on MLK weekend in DC as we explore the theme of living and sharing the house that is our earth and what it means to be neighbors. How do we live in community and how chaos can both hinder and aid us in the world we share.

Together we will enjoy a long weekend packed with conversations as a group as well as in smaller breakouts amongst peers, singing, home-cooked meals, fun games, service work, great company, and contemplation.

"Perhaps the secret of living well is not in having all the answers but in pursuing unanswerable questions in good company."

– Rachel Naomi Remen
